I understand and acknowledge that KC Fair horse barn volunteers will make every attempt to contact the undersigned before seeking emergency veterinary care for my horse.

If I, or other responsible parties listed as emergency contacts are unreachable, then barn management will proceed with the option I indicate below:

Financially responsible person must circle and sign the option of their choosing.

A.) Barn Management will contact the veterinarian of my choice & if that vet is not available to respond, then any other available veterinarian may be called in. I understand, and agree that I am the financially responsible party.
